

Doctoral Fellowships

The Department of Education Reform offers two competitive and attractive merit based fellowship awards. The Distinguished Doctoral Fellowship provides full tuition plus a total annual stipend up to $40,000 for qualified applicants and the Doctoral Academy Fellowship provides full tuition plus a total annual stipend up to $30,000 for qualified applicants. Each of these awards allows for the candidate to gain valuable experience by doing research for 20 hours per week in the Department of Education Reform.

Distinguished Doctoral Fellowships (DDF)

The Department of Education Reform can nominate no more than 2 qualified applicants as Distinguished Doctoral Fellows. Recipients of the DDF will have tuition paid for degree-related coursework, but are still responsible for miscellaneous fees. In addition, DDF Recipients will receive a total annual award stipend of up to $40,000, renewable for up to three years after the initial award year (4 years total). Distinguished Doctoral Fellows will hold a half-time, 12-month graduate assistant position in the Department of Education Reform, requiring 20 hours of research work per week. Distinguished Doctoral Fellowship nominations go before committee review once a year on March 1st. All students wishing to be considered for a DDF should have all necessary application materials to the Department of Education Reform no later than February 1st.

Listed below are the academic requirements for the Distinguished Doctoral Fellowship.

GPA	GRE Composite	GRE Writing
3.85 (Master's)	1200	5.5
3.65 (Bachelor's)

Doctoral Academy Fellowships (DAF)

The Department of Education Reform can nominate qualified applicants to be considered for Doctoral Academy Fellowships. Recipients of the DAF will have tuition paid for degree-related coursework, but are still responsible for miscellaneous fees. In addition DAF recipients will receive a total annual award stipend of up to $30,000, renewable for up to three years after the initial award year (4 years total). Doctoral Academy Fellows will hold a half-time, 12 month graduate assistant position in the Department of Education Reform, requiring 20 hours of research work per week. Applications for Doctoral Academy Fellowships can be considered by the Graduate School anytime during the year, but applicants should apply by February 1st for admission in the following fall.

Listed below are the academic requirements for Doctoral Academy Fellowship.

GPA	GRE Composite	GRE Writing
3.5	1100	5

If you have further questions please contact:

Jonathan Butcher
Department of Education Reform
201 Graduate Education Building
Fayetteville, AR 72701
479.575.3172
479.575.3196 FAX
jbutcher@uark.edu